

To Get a Learner Permit at Department of Public Safety
Students have three options:

Option #1: The quickest way to get a Learner Permit with no appointment: (1) Complete the 10 hours of class at Brown's (2) Take the written test at an Oklahoma Vocational Center. The fee is $28.50 and well worth the money. (3) Take the written test results, the Brown's contract, and your I.D.'s to the DPS Mega Center (you can go to the Mega Center the same day) (4) The Oklahoma City Mega Center closes permanently December 10, 2021

Option #2: Students may complete the 10 hours of classroom and take the items listed below to DPS and take the written test, 20 multiple choice questions. Browns recommends option #1

Option #3: Students may complete Brown's course (10 hours classroom and 6 hours driving) and take Brown's Completion Certificate along with the items listed below to the DPS Mega Center (no appointment needed) and the written test will be waived. The wait time at other DPS stations is 6-8 weeks to get your Permit. Rushing to finish our course will not shorten the wait time at DPS. Browns recommends option #1
